

"Wenn du nichts falsch gemacht hast, hast du nichts zu befürchten" or in English "If you've done nothing wrong, you've got nothing to worry about" Nazi politician and Propaganda Minister, Paul Joseph Goebbels

"German men and women! The age of arrogant Jewish intellectualism is now at an end! . . . You are doing the right thing at this midnight hour to consign to the flames the unclean spirit of the past. This is a great, powerful, and symbolic act. . . . Out of these ashes the phoenix of a new age will arise. . . Oh Century! Oh Science! It is a joy to be alive!" Joseph Goebbels [speaking at the Berlin book burning, in 1933]

"The people can always be brought to the bidding of their leaders. All you have to do is tell them that they are in danger of being attacked and denounce the pacifists for lack of patriotism and exposing the country to danger." Hermann Goering

"The best political weapon is the weapon of terror. Cruelty commands respect. Men may hate us. But, we don't ask for their love; only for their fear." Heinrich Himmler

"What good fortune for governments that the people do not think..." Adolf Hitler

"If today I stand here as a revolutionary, it is as a revolutionary against the Revolution." Adolf Hitler

"I hope my own children never have to fight a war." George W. Bush Sr.

"I can tell you this: If I'm ever in a position to call the shots, I'm not going to rush to send somebody else's kids into a war." George W. Bush Sr.

"Out of these troubled times, our fifth objective - A NEW WORLD ORDER - can emerge... We are now in sight of a United Nations that performs as envisioned by its founders." George W. Bush Sr.

"Trying to eliminate Saddam, extending the ground war into an occupation of Iraq, would have violated our guideline about not changing objectives in midstream, engaging in "mission creep," and would have incurred incalculable human and political costs. Apprehending him was probably impossible. We had been unable to find Noriega in Panama, which we knew intimately. We would have been forced to occupy Baghdad and, in effect, rule Iraq. The coalition would instantly have collapsed, the Arabs deserting it in anger and other allies pulling out as well. Under the circumstances, there was no viable "exit strategy" we could see, violating another of our principles. Furthermore, we had been self-consciously trying to set a pattern for handling aggression in the post-Cold War world. Going in and occupying Iraq, thus unilaterally exceeding the United Nations' mandate, would have destroyed the precedent of international response to aggression that we hoped to establish. Had we gone the invasion route, the United States could conceivably still be an occupying power in a bitterly hostile land. It would have been a dramatically different - and perhaps barren - outcome." George W. Bush, Sr. [In his memoirs, A World Transformed, 1998]

"Either you are with us or you are with the terrorists." George W. Bush Jr.
["The people can always be brought to the bidding of their leaders. All you have to do is tell them that they are in danger of being attacked and denounce the pacifists for lack of patriotism and exposing the country to danger." Hermann Goering]

"We will not waver; we will not tire; we will not falter, and we will not fail. Peace and Freedom will prevail." George W. Bush Jr. [PEACE AND FREEDOM THROUGH AN ENDLESS WAR]

"The course of this conflict is not known, yet its outcome is certain. Freedom and fear, justice and cruelty, have always been at war, and we know that God is not neutral between them." George W. Bush Jr. [Which Side Are We On Again, It's Not Clear]

"If you've done nothing wrong, you've got nothing to worry about" or in German "Wenn du nichts falsch gemacht hast, hast du nichts zu befürchten" Barack Hussein Obama

"Part of peoples' concern is just the sense that around the world the old order isn't holding and we're not quite yet to where we need to be in terms of a new order that's based on a different set of principles." Barack Hussein Obama

"We are grateful to the Washington Post, the New York Times, Time Magazine and other great publications whose directors have attended our meetings and respected their promises of discretion for almost 40 years.....It would have been impossible for us to develop our plan for the world if we had been subjected to the lights of publicity during those years. But, the world is more sophisticated and prepared to march towards a world government. The supranational sovereignty of an intellectual elite and world bankers is surely preferable to the national autodetermination practiced in past centuries." David Rockefeller

Some even believe we are part of a secret cabal working against the best interests of the United States, characterizing my family and me as 'internationalists' and of conspiring with others around the world to build a more integrated global political and economic structure--one world, if you will. If that's the charge, I stand guilty, and I am proud of it." David Rockefeller

"The supranational sovereignty of an intellectual elite and world bankers is surely preferable to the national auto-determination practiced in past centuries." David Rockefeller [deceased in 2017]

"We are part of a secret cabal working against the best interests of the United States." The Elite

After the first atomic bomb was detonated on July 16, 1945, an American theoretical physicist remarked that it brought to mind words from the Bhagavad Gita: "Now I am become Death, the destroyer of Worlds" J. Robert Oppenheimer [credited with being one of creators of the atomic bomb for his role in the Manhattan Project]

"in earlier times, it was easier to control a million people, literally, than physically to kill a million people. Today it is infinitely easier to kill a million people than to control a million people.”

Obama’s handler Zbigniew Brzezinski

"We're losing a lot of people because of the Internet. [Trump referenced the use by ISIS of social media as a recruitment tool] We have to go see Bill Gates and a lot of different people that really understand what's happening. We have to talk to them about, maybe in certain areas, closing that Internet up in some way. Somebody will say, 'Oh freedom of speech, freedom of speech.' These are foolish people. We have a lot of foolish people." Donald Trump ["The best political weapon is the weapon of terror." Heinrich Himmler]

[Let us not forget where this is heading] "What good fortune for governments that the people do not think..." Adolf Hitler "The age of arrogant intellectualism is now at an end!" "Out of these ashes the phoenix of a new age will arise. . ."
